

Infinity Retail Management System for Nurseries

Business challenges

- Large product range
- Stock often displayed outside in variable weather
- Warnings required on certain items - e.g. fertilizer

"In particular we are easily able to measure gross margin by product, identify the optimum selling price and to establish the speed in which our products move."

Hugh Evans, Managing Director,
Flowerland

Features

- Fields can be customized to store product detail or warnings specific to particular items or lines of items.
- Unique print layouts by item to print required messages on labels
- Batch updates to increase value of inventory, as it grows, over time
- Link to tag labeling
